

September 12, 2018

Hon. Katte Bharathiramachar Akhilesh, India
Receives 2018
Gusi Peace Prize

Dear Honorable Akhilesh,

The Gusi Peace Prize Philippine and International Committee have decided to award the Gusi Peace Prize for 2018 to you, Honorable Katte Bharathiramachar Akhilesh, for your untiring effort, working for people's amelioration, to find peaceful solutions for people's welfare by promoting peace thru Education.

You contributed greatly to the lives of people for you outstanding educational attainment with an awarded gold medal for your Ph.D. in Graduation in Science; for your excellence in the educational field serving as a professor in George Mason University and University of Hamburg, School of Information; for your authored and published books such as the "R&D Management" and "Co-Creation and Learning", as well as your published journals marking over 140 encompassing research on Smart Technologies, Sustainability, Vocational Skill Development and etc.; for your untiring efforts as an active member of the National Board of Accreditation in the All India Council for Technology, being the Editor-in-Chief of the upcoming Handbook of Indian Business Case Studies (13 volumes), taking part in the board of governors Indian Institute of Petroleum and Energy; for being member of the the advisory committee of the HRD Network in India; and the Association of North America Higher Education International, USA. Needless to say that your endeavors had provided great opportunities and success to large industries and universities being their consultant, professor and trainer, therefore achieving peace and prosperity.

Your presence is eagerly expected on November 28, 2018, Wednesday, 6 p.m. at the Philippine International Convention Center to receive the distinguished honor, dedicated and integral achievement for your significant contribution in Education.

Your presence at the night of the event will be highly appreciated by the Gusi Peace Prize Philippine and International Committee, the Filipino people, Asia and the whole world. Your presence in the event will enhance human dignity, friendship and goodwill.

With my very best wishes,

AMB. BARRY S. GUSI
Chairman of the Board
Gusi Peace Prize